Claims and Minutes

Operations update

Marc states that things are going well. There have been a lot of calls; 12 transports and 30 calls. Discussion that some calls made have been bizarre. Discussion on the CHEMS program and how it was presented at the Youth Center event; the EMS employees there to promote the program were not engaging with the people.

Ambulances and supplies are good, discussion on programs working with Twin Falls trainees.

Commissioner Rutler made a motion to pay the CHEMS accounts payable for $4,702.23. Commissioner Hubert seconded. Vote unanimous in favor, motion carries.

Commissioner Hubert made a motion to pay the May 10, 2021 accounts payable for $4,123.82. Commissioner Rutler seconded. Vote unanimous in favor, motion carries.

Commissioner Hubert made a motion to pay the unemployment insurance accounts payable for $497.26. Commissioner Rutler seconded. Vote unanimous in favor, motion carries.

Marc discussed a meeting with ICRMP, discussed meetings he attended. Discussion on a request for records and if it needs to go into an executive session; no.

11:30am Chairman Wood adjourned the meeting.

Respectfully,

Cindi Sievers, Clerk for Minutes

Rebecca Wood, Chairman
